Prof. Dr. Nguyen Dang Hoa
Rector, Hanoi University of Pharmacy
15 Le Thanh Tong, Hoan Kiem District Hanoi City

Dear Prof. Dr. Nguyen Dang Hoa,

I am writing on behalf of the 2016 Faculty of Pharmacy Universitas Gadjah Mada Summer Course Committee. The summer course program on Jamu, Indonesian herbal medicine, aims to promote Jamu at the international level as a part of the traditional medicine practice equals to Traditional Chinese Medicine and Ayurveda. The program takes place from 13 to 26 September 2016 at Faculty of Pharmacy Universitas Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta, Indonesia.

The 2016 Summer Course program welcomes many participants from around the world. Therefore, with the purpose of maintaining our mutual partnership, it is an honor and privilege to invite the students from our partner universities to participate in our 2016 Summer Course program. We provide scholarships for two participating students from Hanoi University of Pharmacy. The scholarships cover registration, course, and accommodation fees but exclude the airfare expenses.

Please kindly have your students follow the registration link on <http://goo.gl/forms/1anAtu4fPKATfBCi2> or enquire to our Unit of International Affairs (uui.farmasi@ugm.ac.id) for further information. Thank you for encouraging your students to take part in our Summer Course program. We greatly appreciate your supports.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Subagus Wahyuono, M. Si., Apt.
Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy UGM
